

Copyright Laws

Please note that all photos taken by Lilley photography have copyright protection.

It is illegal to download, scan or copy any of our photos without the written permission of the photographer.

Copyright laws for photography go under the same laws used to protect the music you sing. Please respect our work and purchase the rights to use the photographs.

Purchasing the publicity CD for a chorus or quartet gives you the legal rights to post the photo on your website and gives you the ability to use the photos in advertising, publications and other promotional purposes.

Not for individual use.

Any question about using the photos for publications please call 800-766-3220 and we would be happy to help you.
